LAST RITES FOR
HUGH DEADMORE

Hugh H. Deadmore, who has lived in Mokena for the past seven years passed away in Silver Cross hospital early Saturday evening July 17. He was removed to the hospital early that morning, following a third heart attack.

Mr. Deadmore, who was born in Peoria November 17, 1887, the son of the late David D. and Margaret Hines Deadmore, moved to Joliet when about seven years old. His father was employed as a conductor on the E&W railroad for many years and when Hugh was 16, unbeknown to his parents, he left school and entered the employ of the same railroad as a call boy, and railroading continued in his nature. He gradually worked up through the various departments, fireman, engineer for a short time, and for the past 25 years was with the signal department. He was one of the first to drive the railroad truck when that railroad first added highway trucks to their service. Mr. Deadmore was such a chauffeur for 25 years, and a few years ago he received a 25 year pin from that department. He retired in 1953. Since that time he has kept himself busy around the Semmler Newspaper shop where his wife, sister of Mrs. Semmler, also works.

He suffered the first heart attack two years ago, and the second one two months ago, at which time he was confined to Silver Cross hospital where he received oxygen for several days. He was confined in his home since, with his condition gradually becoming worse until Saturday when it was necessary to remove him again to the hospital for oxygen. He will be remembered as a cheerful person who was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need.

He was united in marriage with the former Miss Cida O. Oestreich March 10, 1917. Surviving beside his wife are one brother Low R. of Blue Island; five sisters, Mrs. Lura Johnston, Mrs. Ruth Johnson and Mrs. Dede Goff all of Glendale, Calif. Mrs. Neva (Henry) Winke of Lockport and Mrs. Ralph (Virginia) Moore of Telford, Tenn., and one aunt, Mrs. J. C. Tresson, Abingdon, Va.

Funeral services were held in the Blood and Grant funeral home in Joliet Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. James S. Lilley, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, Joliet, officiating. Burial was made in Oakwood cemetery, Joliet.

SCOUT TR. 40
TAKES HONORS

Boy Scout troop 40 has returned from a week spent in the Alpine cottage of the Morris Boy Scout reservation. Those attending were Joe Sluis, Hassen Wagner, Kenneth Lorenz, Robert Munch, Tom Williams, Wm. Seavertson, Charles Kelch, Terry Marshall, Tom Rickets, James Murdoch, Wm. Klinger and Tom Miller.

All scouts and leaders were given a check for communicable disease and heart trouble. The swimming test showed one beginner and 11 non swimmers. By Saturday there were 11 swimmers and one non-swimmer.

On Big Night (parents' night) Joe Sluis and Hassen Wagner took first place and almost set a camp record in the string burning contest. Representing troop 40 in the other Big Night events were: rifle range, Tom Williams; archery, Tom Rickets; knot tying, Wm. Seavertson; hosting, Jim Murdoch and Wm. Klinger; canoeing, Robert Munch and Terry Marshall; swimming, bean race, Kenneth Lorenz and Wm. Seavertson.

Joe Sluis was made a member of the Order of the Arrow in an impressive Indian ceremony. Ted Dunham, senior patrol leader, and Arthur Omland, scoutmaster, both already members of the order, were taken into the brotherhood. This is a higher step in the order of the Arrow Service. The Order of the Arrow is a brotherhood of campers who best exemplify the Scout oath and law and conduct themselves in such a manner as to warrant recognition.

Tom Rickets, troop 40's bowman, qualified for the first four archery awards and was given a bar for the highest class. Troop 40 also came home with the Honor Camping Award, presented by the camp to all troops qualifying in set standards and goals.

The camp needs funds for improvements. The cabins are old and much used, bunks and mattresses for the most part need replacing. The drinking water well is dry and must be deepened or replaced. It takes $75 a day to filter the water from the swimming pool. These items cannot be handled out of the $2.00 a day it costs a scout to go to the camp. Anyone wishing to help with either contributions or services is asked to get in touch with this newspaper scout headquarters or any Mokena scout or adult scoutmaster.

Each candidate will be sponsored by one of the local organizations. The organizations are the VFW, Amvets, Civic association and Lions' club.

During the present week these organizations will draw for their candidate. Each will then get out and work to see that she gets enough votes to be chosen.

The name of the girl assigned to each organization will be announced next week.

Mrs. Hilda Geuther is chairman of the exhibition tent, anyone wishing to secure space for an exhibit should call her at 2218 or Mrs. Hoolahan at 3444. The charge for exhibit space will be $2.00 per front foot.

Mrs. Geuther is planning an exhibit of an old-time kitchen sink and would like to know if any of our readers have an old wood-burning stove or a "dry" sink they can loan.

Carnival Bound
Girl Is Injured

Marilyn Trotman, 10-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Troutman of Marley, was severely bruised about the head and legs Sunday evening July 17 when she was struck by an automobile in Joliet.

She and the rest of the family were going to a carnival and were waiting to cross the street at the corner of Wilcox and Raynor streets. Suddenly the girl darted into the path of a car.

She was thrown up onto the pavement. After treatment at St. Joseph's hospital she was taken home Monday.

This entire area was shocked and grieved to learn of the accidental death Monday morning July 19 of Raymond W. Doctor, 63, of Orland Park.

The widely known banker, public servant, civic worker, soldier was struck by an automobile and instantly killed. He had left his home on Wolf road and was attempting to cross the highway to get mail from his RFD box on the opposite side.

Apparently he did not see an approaching car driven by Albert Hill, 55, who was on his way to Chicago.

State police had him taken to the Oak Forest infirmary where he was pronounced dead. The body was taken to the Schmaderke funeral home.

An inquest was held Tuesday morning in the Schmaderke funeral home under direction of Cook county deputy coroner. An accidental death was returned.

Masonic services were held Wednesday evening. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, July 22 in the Orland Park church.

BLUE BALLOT DEFEAT SERIOUS, SAYS GOV.

Defeat of the blue ballot reapportionment amendment at the November 2 General Election could possibly result in court action forcing reapportionment based on the present Illinois constitution, Governor William G. Stratton declared in Chicago July 16.

Speaking at a meeting of the Illinois committee for constitutional revision, the Governor spoke and pledged bi-partisan support for the amendment. He said that the amendment would give down-state permanent control of the Senate and would provide for reapportionment of the House on the basis of population every ten years.

The present Illinois state constitution requires the Legislature to apportion the state every ten years so that each legislative district will contain approximately equal population. This would give Cook county control of both the Senate and the House. As a result, despite vast shifts of population making the districts unequal, successive state legislatures have refused to reapportion the state since 1901. In complete violation of the Constitution.

Legal steps in the past to force the Legislature to fix the constitution have failed, but many lawyers believe that there is a possibility for the Supreme Court to force the Legislature to follow the constitution.

In suggesting that the courts would possibly take judicial notice of the breakdown of representative government in Illinois, if the proposed Amendment fails, Governor Stratton indicated his belief that the proposed Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment is the best possible solution to the problem of legislative representation.

He called the amendment basically fair to downstate, the City of Chicago and the suburban towns of Cook County.

STOVE MATS ARTISTIC

Stove mats that once were used solely for that purpose have gone beyond the utility stage and become decorative, says the Aristo Mat Co. of Chicago.

A bulletin recently issued by that company says Aristo asbestos mats are now supplied in numerous artistic designs. They are used under television sets, and various kitchen utensils and for many other purposes.

CENTENNIAL AT LANSING TO HAVE INTERESTING EVENTS

Parker Zellers, producer of the Lansing-Cent-Orama which will be presented nightly Aug. 14 to 21, has announced that the pageant will consist of 18 episodes. It will start with the life of a Potawatomi Indian Village before the coming of the white man and end with the atomic age that we now live in.

The firing of a simulated atomic bomb will be one of the highlights of the pageant.

Over 3000 Lansing men sporting beards for the Lansing Centennial have run into difficulty. Wives and sweethearts are picketing the Centennial headquarters in protest against the hairy outgrowths stating they are scratchy, unkempt etc. Since the men will not give in, Mrs. Kathryn Smith, 2438 183rd St., Lansing has come to the rescue with a kissing mask. She claims the beard idea has been rubbing her the wrong way hence the mask for her mate.

The Brothers of the Brush are conducting a contest for the beards and prizes will be awarded for the bushiest beard, most distinguished beard, best mustache and sideburns and other types of beards. Rumor has it that all the boys are eager to win.

The parade committee under Emil Raugauth, 2516 Ridge Rd. Lansing, reports entries are coming in quite rapidly however, there is still time and place for more. Entrants are not limited to Lansingites only, and all persons and businesses from surrounding cities are invited. Entry date closes July 25.

Mr. William E. Erfert, general chairman of the Lansing Centennial, has announced that the steering committee has decided to use the profits for the purchase of fire fighting equipment. It was thought that by giving the money for this cause the fire village could be benefited for the next 20 years.

SATURATE THE GROUND WHEN YOU WATER TREES

If you're watering small shade trees this summer, give the ground a good soaking at least once a week.

W. F. Bulkley, extension forester at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says it isn't necessary to water small trees every day if you saturate the ground once a week.

Allow a full stream of water to run from the hose for at least 15 minutes. Make sure the ground is thoroughly saturated down where the roots grow.

Watering young trees may keep them alive during periods of hot, dry weather if you don't wait until the leaves start to curl and turn brown.

Fertilizing will also help keep young trees in thrifty condition, but be careful not to use too much, Bulkley warns. Too little is better than too much. Excessive fertilizer may stimulate the tree to grow faster than the roots can develop. As a result, the moisture needed for transpiration, or breathing, of the leaves would be more than the roots could supply during prolonged heat and drought periods, causing the tree to die.

WOODEN TOYS ARE GOOD FOR SAND BOXES

Wooden toys for the sand box are better than metal or plastic ones, says child development specialist Dr. Nellie L. Perkins of the University of Illinois.

The wooden trucks, boats and engines on the market are excellent and inexpensive. The paint will be scratched off bottoms, but this won't interfere with their efficiency on sand roads or tracks or waterways.

On the other hand, metal toys rust, the wheels clog with sand so they won't function, and cranks stick so they won't turn. When children are thwarted by the mechanics of such toys, they need too much help from adults.

Plastic toys and tools are too fragile for the sand box. Broken ones have sharp jagged edges that are even more dangerous than broken glass.

Very fine equipment for digging and cake making includes butter paddles, basting spoons and sugar scoops. Jello molds, individual aluminum pie plates and toy cooking utensils are perfect accessories for sand play. A sprinkle to dampen the sand so it will cake and stay put is a good investment.

ious retired workers now living on pensions. One thing that interests them most is the future cost of living. They are grateful to their employers for their pension, but they wonder just how much it may always be able to buy. You cannot blame them for worrying, considering that a $1,000 pension received in 1900 will today buy only about $300 worth of food, clothing, and shelter.

Too many of my readers are thinking only of dollars, rather than of what these dollars will buy in the years ahead. Of course, the ideal thing would be for employers to promise their retired people a certain number of bushels of potatoes, pounds of meat, pairs of shoes, etc., in the form of a pension. Corporations, however, cannot do this unless government. As our politicians they can be reimbursed by the are the ones who mainly determine the cost of living, would it be unfair to ask their government to "give these pensioners insurance" against such unnecessary inflation?

Another possible answer would be to have pension funds invested in merchandising stocks. I have in mind super markets such as A & P, Kroger, American Stores, First National, Stop & Shop, etc., and the Variety Chains. These stocks could partly serve as a hedge against rising prices. The pension funds would be purchased from Chain stores, such as Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Penney, especially from the modern variety stores which now carry nearly everything necessary to living, other than food. The buyers of these variety chains hunt all over the world for the best merchandise at the lowest prices and sell it at the least profit, while the value of their inventories increases along with the cost of living. Thus, if pension funds were invested more in such stocks, the pensioners should be much better off if the cost of living should increase, especially in view of the "self-service" feature which was promoted by Herbert A. Hills, Jr., of Wellesley, Mass.

Working people should also put a fair proportion of their own savings in these stocks, possibly an equal proportion of money into each of the ten. Knowing, however, that two of these, the McLellan Chain and the McCrory Chain, are largely owned by the United Stores Corporation, I can "catch a bird with one stone" by buying the stocks of United Stores Corporation which are listed on the New York and American Stock Exchanges. The Second Preferred sells around $9.75 a share and yields over 8 per cent; and the Common sells around $2.75 a share. When working people come to me and want stocks to law away for their children and grandchildren, not for speculation, I recommend these United Stores stocks at the rate of one share of Common for protection with each two shares of Second Preferred for dividends. Note the following figures:

	Current	1953
1953 Sales	Market Price	Dividend	Yield
F. W. Woolworth	$713,870,378	42	$2.50 6.0%
S. S. Kresge	337,299,151	33	2.00 6.1%
W. T. Grant	299,767,741	37	1.50 4.1%
G. C. Murphy	187,163,324	40	2.00 5.0%
S. H. Kress	172,979,646	49	3.00 6.1%
J. J. Newberry	171,163,900	34	2.00 5.9%
H. L. Green	108,683,918	29	2.25 7.8%
McCrory Stores	104,787,105	13	1.10 8.5%
Neisner Brothers	66,742,814	14	1.00 7.1%
McLellan Stores	60,672,811	24	2.00 8.3%

There are several reasons why I like the above ten Variety Chains. In addition to their being a hedge against inflation and against a rising cost of living, they provide a geographical protection in case of World War III which big city stores cannot offer. All the above ten chains have their assets scattered throughout the United States. The United Stores (McCrory and McLellan) have stores in over 440 cities scattered in 37 states, while Woolworth has 1,973 stores in the United States and Canada alone. Woolworth, however, has a large investment in England and Germany which World III would probably wipe out. Although we may not now fear such a war, no student of history can believe that wars are over forever. Only a great spiritual awakening, of which I see no signs at present, can prevent the onslaught of such a war before long.

Removing Straw After Grain Harvest Aids Legume Growth

AGRONOMISTS recommend these steps for helping new legume-grass seedlings make fast, thick growth this summer after the small grain crop is harvested:

1—Remove all straw from your wheat fields after the crop is combined, except where the seedling is made up of sweet clover. By promptly clipping and hauling off the straw, you eliminate harmful shading and allow sunshine and air to reach alfalfa, red clover, Ladino and pasture grasses.

2—Unless the seedlings have had a full feed before planting, top dress with fertilizer high in phosphate and potash, after the straw is removed. This will give the small legume plants the nutrients they need to build husky, winter-resisting roots and thick, healthy topgrowth.

3—Watch for sweet clover beetles, for they have been known to attack alfalfa and other legumes when the sweet clover is not present.

Getting rid of the straw helps get rid of the danger from fungus and molds encouraged by the dampness under the straw," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. "These fungus and molds can sometimes destroy the new seedlings."

If there is exceptionally heavy growth the new seedling can be clipped and the clippings removed—otherwise, grazing or mowing can weaken the plants and lower their winter resistance. Especially the new legume seedlings should not be grazed until after October 10 or growth has stopped for the winter. The legumes need the fall months to store up in their roots the plant food needed to carry them over the winter and promote rapid growth the following spring.

land Park Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. Robert DeMoss will conduct the services. Burial will be in Orland Memorial Park cemetery.

A Useful Life

Raymond W. Doctor was born in Orland township Feb. 22, 1891, the son of the late Charles and Mary Tilley Doctor. He has lived in Orland township all his life. For several years he lived in Orland Park but four years ago he moved to his farm home on Wolf road, where he lived until his tragic end.

He was married Oct. 8, 1918 to Miss Edna Young. They had two sons and one daughter. He gave his full measure of public service and civic effort. He succeeded his father as treasurer of Orland township schools and served on that post for 10 years. He was also a member of the school board of district No. 135 in Orland township. In addition he was a recognized authority on taxation and was frequently consulted by citizens.

Mr. Doctor's career in business was equally successful. He became an officer of the Orland State bank in 1930 and for the past 15 years has served as president. For 31 years he has been a member of Davidson and Doctor Construction Co., which is engaged in bridge construction, road repairing and tilling work.

He gave devoted service to his country during World War I and during World War II served as a member of the Orland rationing board.

He was past commander of Orland Park post No. 526, American Legion, a member of Will county voiture 796, 40 and 8 and Calumet lodge F. and A. M. of Blue Island.

Mr. Doctor was a man of great civic spirit, high ideals and unquestioned integrity. Highly respected, dependable, honorable, trustworthy, it was frequently said of him that his word was as good as his bond. His was a life of inspiration and usefulness, and he will be greatly missed.

He leaves his widow, two sons, Gordon of Mokena and Wendell of Orland, one daughter, Mrs. Harold (Mildred) Shroat of Orland and two brothers, Amil of Orland and four grandchildren.

Keep your dairy herd free from lice with a chemical spray.

Frankfort Herd Has High Record

Other high producing individuals, all Holsteins, with production, were owned by the following: Adolph Rademacher and son, Crete, 1632 - 86; Louis Holm and son, Mokena, 1890 - 85; Vally & Homering, Frankfort, 2154 - 84; Herman Gee, Orland Park, 2286 - 82; Austgen and Aggen, 1812 - 82.

Farmers To Vote On Wheat Quotas

Farmers will vote Friday, July 23 in the growers' national referendum on marketing quotas for the 1955 wheat crop.

The ASC office, 157 N. Ottawa street, Joliet, is the polling place for these townships: Crete, Washington, Will, Monee, Green Garden, Manhattan, Jackson, Channahon, Troy, Joliet, New Lenox, Frankfort, Homer, Lockport, Plainfield, Wheatland and Dupage.

If quotas are approved producers who comply with their farm wheat acreage allotments may market all the wheat they produce in any way they choose. They will also be eligible for the full level of price support which is authorized for the 1955 crop.

If the quotas are not approved there will be no marketing quotas and no marketing penalties.

SCIENCE and your Health

People who get too close to their pet birds run the risk of getting psittacosis, commonly known as parrot fever. The increasing nationwide popularity of parakeets, parrots and love-birds as pets is believed to be the main cause for the rising rate of this relatively obscure disease.

In the first two months of this year 23 cases were reported by the U. S. Public Health Service, about four times the average number that occurred during the same period in 1945.

The symptoms of and treatment of parrot fever are almost the same as those of virus pneumonia. This lung infection is accompanied by headaches, sore throat, chills and fever when the disease strikes. Before the introduction of antibiotics one out of every five recorded parrot fever cases resulted in death. Treatment today usually consists of rest in bed with doses of antibiotics. Doctors at the University of Texas Medical Branch reported that treatment with terramycin led to recovery of two psittacosis patients within three days.

Sparrows, pigeons and ducks can also carry the disease, and the birds need not be infected themselves in order to spread the virus that causes the fever. People can catch the illness by close association with these feathered friends or by direct contact with them.

A warning was issued recently by the Medical Society of New Jersey against kissing parrots or parakeets or allowing these pets to take food from one's lips. Some kisses, the medical society admitted, are undoubtedly worth running a risk to enjoy. Kissing birds, however, should be left to other birds.

FLIES DRIVE YOU SCREWY?

Then TRAP 'EM and KILL 'EM
GALLON AFTER GALLON with BIG STINKY
OUTDOOR FLY TRAPS

FILTHY FLIES can't resist Big Stinky's potent scent lure. They're drawn away from the house and outdoor recreation and work areas — then trapped and killed. And once inside a Big Stinky Fly Trap flies can't survive to become resistant to Big Stinky's lure.

LET THE BIG STINKY FAMILY HELP YOUR FAMILY HAVE A HEALTHIER SUMMER

BIG STINKY can operate a whole season on one simple baiting operation. Action of Big Stinky Control Fluid and water on starting bait produces a scent that attracts some flies. With these flies and Big Stinky Control Fluid, an irresistible scent is formed that lures and catches hundreds of thousands of flies.

BIG STINKY Fly Trap—complete with gal. jar for large capacity — no parts to supply — with 8 oz. (season's supply) of Control Fluid — known world-wide for its potent lure — $4.95.
Same with 1/2 gal. jar — $4.49
Keep extra refills of Control Fluid on hand—8 oz.—only $1.50

Ponies Take Lead

Friday, July 15 the team played at Manhattan and collected 13 runs, for Miller, who gave up only one run on three hits and thirteen strikeouts. Hug and Rodger each had 2 hits apiece. Both Siemsen, Miller, Tindall, Schultz and Blount had one.

Tinley Park defeated Frankfort Saturday, July 17 by a score of 6 to 4. Hug started for T.P. and had 8 strikeouts while allowing 4 hits that resulted in 4 runs, when coupled with 7 errors, Rodgers had a single and a double, while Teddy Siemsen and Hartwig each had a single. Hartwig came in to relieve in the 6th inning and was the winning pitcher for T.P. The Ponies will play Matteson at Tinley Park, Friday.

T.P. Girls Lose Two

by Sue Balzhiser

Last Thursday our Tinley Park girls traveled to Matteson to get beat 18-7. Our team was very shaky again in the first inning and Jayne Webb faced 11 batters, gave up 5 hits, combined with 3 errors by her team mates for a total of 8 runs for Matteson, who went on to win easily.

Monday night our girls were hosts to Steger who beat them 21-9. Our girls finally got over their first inning jitters, but by committing a total of 14 errors gave Steger an easy victory. Lenine Couch started for Tinley Park, was relieved by Jayne Webb, who in turn was relieved by Diane Albright.

Steger's pitcher, Chudy, faced 9 batters in the first 3 innings, striking out 8 of them. She was relieved by the short stop, Urban, in the fourth, but came back in the sixth to finish the job.

Our Tinley Park girls got their runs on 9 hits led by Carol Meyer with another homer. The team is still in last place with a total of 0-6. The teams beating them include Frankfort, Matteson, North Harvey, Oak Forest (2) and Steger.

MATTESON WINS 2 GAMES

After winning 12 consecutive softball games, the Trinity-Walther league of Tinley Park dropped their 6th and 7th games of the season to Matteson in a doubleheader played at Tinley Park last Sunday. This leaves Matteson in sole possession of 1st place with an 8-0 record while Tinley now holds second place with a 5-2 record.

Although the Tinley team only scored 2 runs all afternoon and had only 14 hits in the two games, the Parkers had something to cheer about after all. It was the first home run of the season hit by Leroy Hoeh in the 6th inning of the second game. The boys from Tinley Park were held to 4 hits in the second game with Bill Koehler collecting half of the team's total.

The only run in the 1st game came on a triple by Carl Bormet and a single by Warren Schultz.

The first game was going along fairly well until the 4th inning. After Les Becue had yielded 7 runs on 10 hits, he was relieved by Bill Koehler, who pitched to 8 men in the 5th inning allowing 6 runs on 4 hits. He was relieved by George Schultz who finished the game.

George Schultz started for the Tinley team in the second game, and along with shaky support, gave up 8 runs on 7 hits. Becue relieved him in the 5th and pitched the last inning.

Tinley Park plays another home game next Sunday for anyone who is interested in seeing Tinley start their winning streak all over again, we hope. Tinley will be host to Lansing; Game time is 2:30.

STEPS TO TAKE IF YOU HAVE ACCIDENT

If, while driving, you have an accident the Chicago Motor Club suggests the following steps:

1. Stop immediately after the accident.
2. After the crash, warn oncoming traffic by placing a flare on the road or having someone signal the traffic.
3. Determine the extent of the injuries. Give all the necessary first aid after calling a doctor.
4. Note the position of the car or cars when they came to rest. Then move them to the side of the road out of the way of traffic.
5. Call the police if the damage is at all serious. (The law in Illinois requires that the accident be reported if there are any personal injuries or if the damage to one car exceeds 100 dollars. In Indiana if there are any personal injuries or if the damage exceeds 50 dollars to one or more cars, the accident must be reported.)
6. Get the names and addresses of all witnesses and parties involved in the accident.
7. Report all details to your insurance company. Remember that they will handle all claims against you. Do not discuss the accident with the other party.

Girls Softball Notes

By Ruth

The Frankfort Girls Softball team traveled to Sauk Trail and Cicero for a game with the Rich girls last Monday night and won in an extra inning shutout 3 to 0. The game got underway with Arleen Fleisher on the mound for Frankfort and Joyce Kooiman for Rich. The catchers in this pitcher's duel were Carole Peterson for Frankfort and Myra Kampe for Rich.

The game went through seven innings without a run scoring but Frankfort managed to get a rally going good for three runs in the first half of the eighth and held Rich scoreless in the last half to take the victory. In the eighth, Pat Boleman singled, Lois Steinbach walked, Arleen Fleisher hit safely to score both, and Jean Lentz tripled to score Arleen for Frankfort's three runs.

On Friday night, our girls again played the same girls at Rich. Due to another game being played on our diamond, we traveled to Rich to play, with Frankfort being the home team. This was a game being made up, having been rained out earlier.

This time the story was entirely different. Our girls must have been well rested and warming to go because they were hitting very well and safely and won 16 to 5.

Arleen Fleisher and Carole Peterson for Frankfort and Joyce Kooiman and Myra Kampe of Rich were the opposing batter-

The first inning looked like it was going to be another pitcher's duel but the second inning turned the tide completely. Frankfort scored seven runs on hits by Barbara Hauser, Carole Peterson, Ruth Benck, and Arleen Fleisher; doubles for Jean Lentz and Lorraine Redman; and a homerun for Lois Steinbach.

Rich got one run in the second when A. Stuenkel walked and scored on E. Bohlman's double.

Frankfort got three runs each in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. In those innings, Inez Reiter and Arleen Fleisher tripled, Barbara Hauser doubled, and Jean Lentz, Carole Peterson, Lois Steinbach, and Shirley Heavener all helped their batting averages with singles.

Rich scored another two runs in the fifth and one each in the sixth and seventh for their five runs.

Frankfort now has won five games and lost three in league competition.

The next home games are Friday, July 23rd - Wilmington; Tuesday, July 27th - North Harvey and Tuesday, August 3rd - Beecher.

KNOW AND USE, FIRST AID FOR ACCIDENT VICTIMS

Knowing some simple first aid rules, and keeping calm so that you can use them, may help you save the life of an injured person, says Gordon McCleary, University of Illinois extension safety specialist.

That's what 14 year old Dennis Wurster of Stephenson Co., Illinois, proved last winter. Dennis and his father were chopping corn in a hammermill when his father's hand was mangled in the machine.

Realizing that the bleeding must be stopped, Dennis put a tourniquet across an artery in his father's arm. Then he rushed him to the doctor. Had it not been for Dennis' quick thinking, according to the doctor, the accident might have been fatal.

What should you do for an accident victim? First, stop any bleeding. If there's a chance that any major bones are broken, better wait for an ambulance to move the victim.

You can help to prevent shock by protecting the victim from extremes in temperature. McCleary says. Shade him in summer, and keep him comfortable warm when the weather's cold. Then get a doctor as quickly as possible.

If you're interested in learning more about first aid, you may be able to enroll in a class sponsored by your local Red Cross chapter.

FAIR IS FAIR

The following editorial is reprinted from the Philadelphia Inquirer:

When the Second World War started this country had four major forms of transportation: railway, highway, airway and waterway. But as James M. Symes, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, warned the other night, "It did not take long to find that railroads were still the backbone of our transportation defense."

Yet, as Symes pointed out, in peacetime the railroads of this country find their position in the transport field being steadily weakened because our Federal and State Governments are subsidizing all other forms of transport at their expense....

Uncle Sam subsidizes the air lines. Together with the States he subsidizes truck transportation. Now he has moved to subsidize their competitors, it is faced with the fact that, in any future defense crisis the railroads would be vital. And if they were not ready; if sufficient rolling stock were not available; if equipment was mothballed, obsolete or neglected—the country would be in a dangerous position.

Symes rightly stated that the railroads seek no subsidy. What they do seek and have a right to expect is fair and equal treatment of all forms of transport. And the taxpayers, too, have a right to expect an end to the taxing of their wages to subsidize the railroads' competitors....

Cities build airports. They build bus and truck terminals. All that enters into the balance sheet of transport competition.

We hold no brief for the railroads as such. There was a time when they held the whip hand of monopoly over U. S. transportation and urgently needed the Federal regulation which followed. But now things have gone to the other extreme so that the very survival of our great U. S. railroad network is threatened.

The imperative issue is that of national defense. Since there is not the slightest doubt that the Nation would depend upon the rails to carry the major burden in any emergency, now is the time to make it possible for the railroads to stand on their own feet financially, and build the strength they need.

Competition the railroads must expect. They should not find Uncle Sam taxing all of us to finance their competitors.

CUBE SHAPED EGGS CAN SAVE MONEY

Cube-shaped eggs, bought now during summer, can save on food bills next fall and winter.

No, you're not likely to find new-fangled cube eggs on the market. But you can buy the old-fashioned oval ones cheaper about this time of year and freeze them (in cubes for practical reasons) to use in cold months when prices are up, home economists of Deepfreeze Home Appliances point out.

An indication of seasonal price differences may be seen in current government reports. Average store prices of large grade A eggs were nearly 20 cents a dozen lower in May, 1954, than they were last November, according to U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics figures for 20 key cities across the nation. The comparative prices were 53.8 cents against 73.0 cents.

Eggs—whole ones, or yolks or whites separately—may be stored in the home freezer for months. After being removed from the shells, they are formed into handy individual units of space-saving shape when frozen in ice cube trays or similar molds. Then they are wrapped and sealed in moisture-vapor-proof material.

Nothing is added to whole eggs or whites for freezing, but yolks need a little sugar, sirup or salt to keep solids from separating. One tablespoon of sugar or sirup --or one teaspoon of salt--to one cup of yolks will do. The choice of additive depends on how the eggs will be used.

Quality and volume of frozen eggs equal those of the fresh product, Deepfreeze home economists have found. Angel food cake, for example, prepared from frozen whites can not be distinguished from one made with fresh whites. The amount of sugar, sirup or salt in frozen yolks should not be subtracted from what a recipe calls for, it is excluded.

BABSON SAYS—

Copyright 1954, Publishers
Financial Bureau, Inc.

The remarkable fecundity of America's farm lands will be graphically demonstrated again this year, if weather and other crop conditions continue favorable. My survey of the over-all picture indicates that the total output of all crops will be only moderately under the world record established in 1948.

For only the second time in eleven years, 1954 wheat production may fail to exceed 1,000,000,000 bushels. Although the winter crop...now about harvested...has done well, with an indicated crop of around 759,000,000 bushels, black stem rust has hit the spring crop in the Dakotas and Minnesota, cutting yields down in that territory. However, I forecast adequate total supplies. I predict also that sizable amounts will enter storage under Government loans. This could result in temporary higher prices later on.

Prospects for most of the other grains are quite promising. I expect output of oats to hit a record high of over 1,500,000,000 bushels. The flaxseed crop may be the second largest on record, and the hay crop the third largest. A big barley crop and a sizable rye outturn also are indicated. This is a favorable development for cattle, hog, and poultry raisers. Incidentally, I predict that the number of cattle and hogs on farms next January 1 will be relatively large.

Corn farmers really went to town at planting time last spring; in fact, they planted nearly a half million acres more than planned in the March intentions. The second largest crop on record is currently indicated; but what the final outturn will be remains to be seen. Much depends upon the weather between now and harvest time. With the hog-corn ratio still at favorable levels, a large corn crop could be profitable for hog producers.

I have long been intrigued by soybeans...one of the nation's most versatile crops, with a phenomenal growth curve in recent years. I should not be surprised if farmers put more acreage into soybeans this year than ever before, because of diversion of acreage from crops under allotment programs, attractive prices, and favorable planting conditions. This could mean a large crop and downward pressure on soybean prices at harvest time.

Heavy supplies of U.S. cotton would have glutted markets and severely depressed prices during the past year had it not been for Government loans. Yet, the basis has been laid for an improved statistical position in the 1954-1955 season. Cotton farmers more than complied with the Government's rigid control program. Acreage in cultivation on July 1 was sharply under a year ago and the ten-year July 1 average. Total supplies, nevertheless, will be sizable, but prices will be well propped at 90c of parity.

Other fall crops, with the exception of potatoes, promise to be in large supply. Potatoes, however, should be in good balance with requirements, barring further damage to the Maine crop. Baked bean lovers can look forward to full pots. Rice Pudding devotees also have nothing to worry about, since a record outturn of this grain is indicated. Production of sugar beets this year is likely to be far above the ten-year average. This will further complicate the problem of a world over-supply of sugar; but U.S. prices may be well controlled by the Federal Import quota program.

The Government's price support program will have to be revamped. Under the present system, farm surpluses have mounted to fantastic levels at the taxpayers' expense. While it will require a high degree of political courage to do the right thing, I believe that we are on the way. If farm price supports are to continue, they certainly should be directly geared to the size of the crops produced. This means a flexible system, which is the only thing that makes sense.

As far as farm income is concerned, I believe that the 1955 outlook is favorable. Although coal there may be a slight decline as compared with 1954, the farmer's net income will still be substantial, and a strong bulwark to the national economy. Farming is an essential industry. Its people are industrious, sensible, and highly religious. I do not believe they ask for or need any special privileges; but they are entitled to a just share of the nation's economic prosperity.

Enough bituminous coal has been produced in West Virginia since 1800-5,558,668,000 tons-to build a solid wall around the state 48" wide and 17 miles high.

Cook County Personal Property Assessment for 1954

OFFICIAL NOTICE
This publication is the official notice to property owners, of the 1954 personal property assessments made in the town and district indicated.
RETURNS AND ESTIMATES
THE LAW PROVIDES THAT, WHERE A PROPERTY OWNER FAILS TO RETURN A SWORN SCHEDULE LISTING HIS PROPERTY THE ASSESSOR OF COOK COUNTY MUST ESTIMATE ITS VALUE ACCORDING TO HIS BEST JUDGMENT AND THEREON A PENALTY OF 50 PER CENT ASSESSMENTS RAISED ON ESTIMATES AND RETURNS HAVE EQUAL STANDING IN LAW.
The amounts herein listed are the assessed values of personal property as of April 1, 1954, as determined by the Assessor of Cook County.
The amount listed as the assessed value is not the tax. The tax may be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation, after it has been equalized by the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois by the tax rate in the town and district in which the property is assessed. The Assessor has nothing to do with the equalization of values or the establishing of tax rates.
BASIS OF COMPLAINT ON ASSESSMENTS
Where a property owner has a specific claim of over or under valuation, complaint may be filed with the Board of Appeals in the County Building, immediately after this notice.
INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS
Each property owner who has any questions in regard to the same should inquire at the office of the Assessor of Cook County, Room 312, County Building. Information will be furnished without cost.

Girl Guards Go To Meeting in Norway

Three guards and two leaders from the Salvation Army sponsored Girl Guard troops in the Chicago area will be among 143 delegates from the United States who will attend the first international guard and leaders' camp at Sjostrand, Norway, Aug. 3 to 13. Returning they will leave Southampton Aug. 22 and expect to reach Chicago Sept. 1. Their "good turn project will be the planting of a fir tree plantation near the campsite, under the direction of a Norwegian forester. The Girl Guards is an organization similar to the Girl Scouts. The age range for Guards is 10 to 18 and for Sunbeams, 6 to 10 years. In Chicago the Salvation Army sponsors 27 troops of Guards with a membership of 387 and 25 troops of Sunbeams with a membership of 413.

Cull Dairy Cows Now

If you are planning to cull some cows from your dairy herd, now may be the time to do it. You will probably get higher market prices for them now than later in the season. Beef prices of lower grades of cattle usually fluctuate with a seasonal high in the spring and a low in the fall, says J. G. Cash, extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois. The present outlook for prices of lower grades of beef does not warrant holding unprofitable dairy cows for an upward trend in the beef market. In addition, if you remove the low-producing cows from your herd now, they won't be eating up the profits your high-producing cows are making. Cash suggests that you cull cows of higher testing breeds that are producing less than 5,000 pounds of milk a year, and cows of the lower testing breeds that are producing less than 7,300 pounds of milk a year.

Growing by Prayer

Lesson for July 25, 1954

IT IS TRUE that we can grow spiritually through prayer; but it is not true that we can grow by just any prayers. Out in Tibet and other parts of the Orient they have these prayer-wheels or prayer flags. A prayer has been inscribed on the wheel or the flag, and every time the flag flaps in the breeze, or every time the wheel turns over, the prayer is supposed to rise. Is a Tibetan who puts out one of those things the most spiritually mature person in any religion? Of course he is not. Jesus told a story about a Pharisee and a tax-collector, both of whom prayed in the same temple to the same God. But the tax-collector grew by his prayer, while the Pharisee certainly did not.

When God said to the Israelites, "Though you make many prayers I will not listen," they were surely not growing by the prayers they had made.

Be Still and Wait
The trouble is that so many prayers are just variations on the one theme, "Gimme." They are selfish through and through, and selfishness never fails to shrink the soul. Then some people in praying do all the talking and never listen to see if God is saying anything to them. "They that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength," the prophet says,—not those who talk loudest and longest. "Be still and know" is as true as it ever was. For the laws of prayer have not changed since man and God first spoke with each other. The prayer by which we grow is not just a one-way thing, a kind of telephone line on which we have only a transmitter and God only a receiver. There is such a thing as being too noisy with our desires and demands.

'In Everything...'
There is another side to this. We ought never to feel shy about asking God's help at any time. Paul says to his friends at Philippi, no doubt from his own experience, "have no anxiety about anything, but in everything... let your requests be made known to God." Paul knew very well that God does not say "Yes" to all our requests. He was in jail at the time he wrote those words. Is it likely he had never prayed to get out? We do know that before this time he had prayed to God earnestly to have a "thorn in the flesh" removed. We do not know what that "thorn" was, perhaps a pain or a disease that could not be cured. Perhaps Paul hoped for some miracle to cure him. But God did not send the miracle; he sent something much better. Paul learned that God's strength is made perfect in weakness, something he would not have known had he not been weak. So while we have every right to offer God our desires in prayer, we have to remember that he knows what is best, and not we ourselves.

'The Throne of Grace'
In conversation, one of the best simple rules is: "Remember to whom you are speaking." This is just as true when we are talking with God as when we are talking with other people. That great phrase in Hebrews, the "throne of grace," expresses two vital truths. One is that our prayers are going to a Throne. God is the sovereign of this universe; his throne is Power itself. There is nothing too hard for the God of the Throne. It is a throne of judgment too; and God knows very well whether we ought to have our prayers answered the way we want them, or not. We have access through Christ to come before God with boldness; but it is to a throne we come, and we must not forget that. We can never dictate to the throne. But it is the throne of Grace. More than mere power sits in control of all things. The true God is a God of love and grace and mercy. "He knoweth our frame, he remembereth that we are dust." God is actually more interested in our welfare than we are in our own. God is more eager to help us than we are to be helped. Our prayers do not so much change God's mind and induce him to do something for us, as they release the divine purpose on our behalf. This is why it is so important to grow, as Christians, into the stature of Christ; for only as we grow Christlike can we become aware of what God's gracious will is, and so be able to pray as Christ himself would pray.
